Community Christian Children's Choir Sings for Heart Walk

Singers from the local Community Christian Children's Choir sang the National Anthem for the opening ceremony of the American Heart Association walk at Point Pleasant Beach on October 5th for a crowd of 4,000 walkers.

"The mission of the CCCC is to reach out and serve the community through excellence in music ministry. Singing for these walkers is a great way to help serve," said Pat Weitz, director of the choir.

With over 90 children in the Children's Choir, the CCCC presents free of charge benefit concerts during the winter and spring since 1995. The choir is slated to sing at the renowned Crossroads Choral Festival held annually at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, TN in July of 2009.
